

THE DOG FOOD

BY ALEXANDRA

One day at home a dog was very hungry. Then the dog smelled some delicious dog food and saw it on a high bench. Excitedly the dog tried to get the food so he could eat it. He jumped and he jumped. He even barked at the food. He tried for a long time but nothing worked. In the end he gave up trying to get the dog food. "I'm never going to get it". He barked and then said "It would probably test bad anyway!".

You don't get always get what you what and can be mean about it.
